

GSA: Sarah Macort and Jess Vogan

GSA is a club for students and adults committed to creating safe, inclusive learning environments where everyone is welcome and encouraged.

LULAC: Krista Drendel

LULAC is a diversity club that seeks to promote diversity and leadership skills through service projects. Its purpose is to provide opportunities for students to grow through helping others and to learn from each other through these unique experiences. See Mrs. Drendel for more information.

FFA: Scott Nordberg

The Gunnison FFA is dedicated to making a positive difference in the lives of students by developing their potential for premier leadership, personal growth and career success through agricultural education. See Mr. Nordberg for more information.

Book Club: Lisa Danos

Book Club is a gathering of bibliophiles who love to discuss books. Lively and thoughtful dialogs surround the book's action, favorite or despised characters, and anything else that participants want to discuss. Students get to democratically choose the books we read, and a variety of genres are encouraged. Since Book Club meets on Thursdays at lunch, usually cookies are provided.

Drama Club:

The Drama Club is made up of students interested in promoting stage performance (musicals, plays, monologues, and improv). The Drama Club has officers elected by the club membership.

Science O: Maria Kattnig

To foster respect, understanding, and curiosity of our world through scientific literacy and hands on experiences. We encourage informed skepticism to instill the confidence needed to make intelligent life choices. By modeling lifelong learning, we strive to prepare individuals for continued success. See Mrs. Kattnig for more information.

National Honor Society: Lisa Danos

The purpose of NHS is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, to stimulate a desire to render service, to promote leadership, and to develop character in the students of secondary schools. NHS meets monthly on the 2nd Monday of the month at 6pm. In addition, the officers of NHS meet monthly on the Thursday morning before the general meeting.

SLC: Lacie Wise

We believe in serving as leaders, amplifying the student voice, and inspiring positive relationships to heighten our high school experience and leave a lasting positive impact on our community. We will demonstrate the ideas of SERVICE, LEADERSHIP, and COMMUNITY. SLC requires an application process. Applications are available in March.

Sources of Strength - Sarah Macort

The mission of Sources of Strength is to prevent suicide by increasing help seeking behaviors and promoting connections between peers and caring adults. If interested in being a part of SOS, please see Mrs. Macort for more information.

Link Crew - Ms. Brown and Mr. Rush

Link Crew is a national student leadership program. It provides students from the Junior and Senior classes, known as "Link Leaders," the opportunity to become positive mentors for freshmen as they transition into highschool. Relationships are nurtured throughout their freshman year. Link Crew operates in 3,705 schools in 47 U.S. states. For more information, please see Ms. Brown or Mr. Rush. Applications are available in the spring.

Chess Club: Mark High and Chris Rush

Chess Club meets at lunch every day in Mr. High's room. We will have several chess tournaments throughout the year. However, the students may play other board games or just enjoy their lunches in the room. Chess club is open to all students of all chess ability levels.

Woman's Athletic Club : Leslie diLorenzo

Woman's Athletic Club is for young women to talk and discuss the importance of being involved in extracurricular activities and how it promotes responsibility, self-confidence, and leadership. See Coach diLorenzo for more information.
